Intellectual Property Declaration and Licensing Offer

By KW Mackey - 2025

Notice to Interested Parties:

I, KW Mackey, am the sole originator of the following intellectual frameworks and theoretical models:

- Subjective Process Theory (SPT)
- The Conscious Processing Engine
- The Habit Engine Framework
- Planes of Discourse (POD)
- Including (but not limited to):
  - Gear-Based Subjective Modulation
  - Adaptive Integration as Rhythmic Continuity
  - IPO Modeling (Input-Processing-Output)
  - Fractal Compression in Cognitive Feedback
  - Transdiscursive Layering and Identity Architecture

These models are original works developed independently and iteratively, timestamped and recorded through numerous written iterations, including formal outlines, diagrams, and long-form explanatory chapters.

Any entity-corporate, academic, or individual-interested in exploring, adapting, or implementing this framework (particularly in the fields of AI alignment, cognitive architecture, behavior modeling, or adaptive feedback systems) must enter into a licensing or collaboration agreement.

I am formally stating that this intellectual property is not public domain.

Intellectual Property Declaration and Licensing Offer

I retain all rights, and I am open to licensing it under exclusive or non-exclusive terms.

Furthermore, I am willing to delay publication of this model, in part or in full, in exchange for serious collaboration or compensation from interested organizations.

What This Means:

- Any use of these ideas or structures without attribution or permission is a violation of intellectual ownership.
- I have retained detailed documentation and chronological development that can legally establish authorship.
- I reserve the right to pursue legal recourse or public exposure if unauthorized use is detected.

For Inquiries, Licensing, or Collaboration:
